

JACQUELIN FELTMAN

Marketing Coordinator
Southwest Florida

ABOUT JACQUELIN

Jacquelin Feltman is a Marketing professional with a rich & diverse background. Her journey into the world of marketing started during her college years where she interned for two prominent Southwest Florida businesses, Beasley Media Group & Mercato, as well as a small local start up.

Upon graduation, Jacquelin embarked on a new role as an Outside Sales & Marketing Representative for Miromar Outlets. During her tenure, she made significant contributions to building key relationships and expanding her marketing expertise. After that she returned to Mercato to assume the pivotal position of Social Media & Marketing Coordinator. Working under the esteemed companies of Madison Marquette and North American Properties, she garnered invaluable experience in property management within the Commercial Real Estate sector.

Today, Jacquelin brings her extensive insights of property-level operations & marketing prowess to the dynamic team at LQ Commercial. She plays a vital role in the LQ Naples office by developing tailored marketing packages and campaigns for individual properties & clients represented by the agents. In addition to that, she assists & spearheads social media, lead generation and brand awareness initiatives.
