

HUCK HAGERTY

Associate

Statewide, Fort Myers Based

Retail Tenant & Landlord Rep

ABOUT HUCK

Huck Hagerty is an LQ Commercial Fort Myers Associate based in Southwest Florida, specializing in retail tenant and landlord representation across the State.

Huck has 15+ years of experience in business development advising high-growth startups and has spent the last three years leading property-technology initiatives focused on waterfront and coastal commercial hospitality, giving him a unique understanding of how modern operators grow and activate space.

Huck offers a deep understanding of what today's tenants need to thrive, combined with the connections to help landlords fill space with strong, relevant operators.

For tenants, Huck specializes in identifying off-market opportunities and emerging high-end lifestyle, destination, and entertainment centers. His approach emphasizes long-term scalability supported by strategic site selection and expert lease negotiation.

For landlords, he leverages market insight and an extensive network of affluent, non-national regional operators to attract high-caliber tenants and enhance asset value.

With an MBA, consulting background, property tech innovation experience, and collaboration with LQ's top retail experts, Huck can help businesses and property owners find the right spaces, unlock new revenue paths and position their assets for long-term success.
